Ticker: SPX

Created in 1957, the S&P 500® was the first U.S. market-cap-weighted stock market index. Today, it's the basis of many listed and over-the-counter investment instruments with well-known companies such as Walmart, AT&T Inc, Microsoft Corp., and Berkshire Hathaway Inc.

The S&P 500® is widely regarded as the best single gauge of large-cap U.S. equities. With 500 of the leading companies in the top industries of the U.S. economy, this index covers approximately 80% of available market capitalization.

Benefits of S&P 500® Index

- ▶ Attractive returns
- ▶ Diversification
- ▶ Low Cost

Fairly diversified, the S&P 500® investments spread out among 11 major industries with no sector having more than 30% of the money invested.

The S&P 500® is a capitalization weighted index that tracks the performance of 500 large companies listed on US stock exchanges. The S&P 500® is widely regarded as the best single gauge of large-cap U.S. equities. There is over USD 11.2 trillion indexed or benchmarked to the index, with indexed assets comprising approximately USD 4.6 trillion of this total. The index includes 500 leading companies and covers approximately 80% of available market capitalization. The companies that are tracked are selected by committee and must meet certain criteria before making the list of eligible companies.
